

ARTÁ FINCA HOTEL

This is a traditional finca located on a vast country estate alongside the sea, the ultimate place to discover Majorca and the Majorcan landscape in very a different light. This 17th-century Majorcan house is located between Son Servera and Artá, on a stretch of land that is surrounded by mountains and almond groves. The estate's buildings were restored, with utmost respect for their original features and personality. This is indeed an ideal spot for an unforgettable encounter with nature. Nestled in the Llevant Natural Park, trees and vegetation adorn a space that is reigned by peace and tranquillity.

THE ROOMS

Sleep in magnificent rooms and rest in full contact with nature. To do so, you can choose from among our four suites, three double rooms and one single room. The distinguishing features of all of our rooms are their ample space, their light and above all, their decoration. The absolute uniformity of our flooring, ceilings and walls is complete with avant-garde furniture and decorative items featuring pure, geometric shapes, all in metal and wood.

THE RESTAURANT

Yet another important reason to visit this Finca Hotel is its restaurant, featuring an up-to-date menu that is nevertheless rooted in traditional dishes: creative Mediterranean, Majorcan cuisine, made with natural and fresh market products. Indeed, the heart of our cooking resides in the flavour of the food, its balance, and an element of surprise and originality.

This is all complete with our exquisite service and excellent wine cellar. One of the secrets of this magical spot is its organic vegetable garden, where we grow the vegetables that inspire the cuisine and uphold the roots of the traditional recipes that are enhanced with a very avant-garde touch. Allow your spirits to be lifted by the aromas of these delicate meals, the desserts, the ambiance and the music.
